Activities

Thank you, Baby, Thank you.

When it's time to clean up, have your little one put a block in the basket. When he does, say, "Thank you, Baby. Thank you!" When he does more, keep saying it so the cleaning up or helping or giving you a hug becomes a game.

No. No. Yes. Yes.

Read the book again. On pages where the baby is doing things she shouldn't, say with your baby, "No! No!" On pages where the baby is doing things she should, say, "Yes! Yes!" Read the book No! No! Yes! Yes! by Leslie Patricelli to play this game more.
